

Something Magical Is Happening
NOW!

“That was the time when words were like magic. The human mind had mysterious powers. A word spoken by chance might have strange consequences. It would suddenly come alive and what people wanted to happen could happen—all you had to do was say it. Nobody could explain this: That’s the way it was.”

AUTHOR

Christine Brydon has a BSc. Hons. Degree in Health and Human Sciences, and M.A. Degree from the University of Durham, UK, based on Counselling Practices, and the Performance of Healing Ceremonies around the world. Christine also worked in the community with medical practitioners involved in the treatment of patients with chronic pain and taught the social impact of western medical practices on today's multi-cultural society.

However, more recently Christine has been drawn toward the origins of the Sacred Phoenician Alphabet, and the spiritual and therapeutic benefits it bestowed upon the people who discovered these mysterious Symbols over 4000 years ago. The insight needed to appreciate the Symbols and Letters of the Phoenician Alphabet in modern terms has developed during a period of over fifty years while studying ancient spiritual philosophies and teaching holistic healing techniques, along with the principles of the Western Mystery Tradition of Qabalah, both in the UK and Internationally. Then after dedicating much of her life to searching for solutions to alleviate the suffering of people who experience 'Pain' in various forms, Christine realised that the now almost forgotten ancient Wisdom provides the answer to this age old dilemma, which reveals it is a matter of:

'Healer, First Heal Thy Self!'

FOREWORD

The manual describes the Magical Essence concealed in the Symbols of the Sacred Phoenician Alphabet and is the author's own interpretation based on fifty years study and contemplation on the subject. The Sacred Alphabet was originally devised as a means of inducing the sensation of True Love and Passion in our own Heart, Soul and Body. Therefore the meaning of the Symbols and Letters given here is not according to the thoughts of other authorities, but is intended to take us away from the world of academia, where 'knowledge' is learned and repeated verbatim without consideration as to its true significance. In today's society we have almost lost the skill of feeling the sensation of Pure Passion within us, which to the Phoenicians is the 'Way to Enlightenment' that is only achieved once we experience fulfilled desire within us. For 'Wisdom' does not come from our ability to know the 'Truth' in our mind, as written about by others, but our capacity to personally identify with our own 'Truth' and see it miraculously appear as a 'Reality' in our world. Throughout the text capitalisation is used to emphasise the importance of certain words, while the hyphenated spelling of 'God-dess' denotes the androgynous nature of the 'Mother of Creation'.

PREFACE

Concealed within the Sacred Phoenician Alphabet is the Key to the 'Process of Self-Creation'; for once the 'Pure Magical Sensation' induced by Speaking the Sacred Letters is Aligned with our 'Almighty Word Within', our 'Perception of Reality' is changed forever.

This is a small manual with a huge message from the distant past and is based on the first Phonetic Alphabet which the Canaanites of Lebanon, or Phoenicians, are alleged to have devised around 2000BC linear time, and subsequently spread throughout the western world. The reason for the brevity of this manual is that in the ancient world there were no manuscripts to aid the seeker on their Inner Journey of Self-Discovery, only Symbols and the sound of the Spoken Word which induce sensations in our body. And to attempt to explain these teachings through lengthy written descriptions would only detract from the original purpose of the Sacred Alphabet; which is to raise the sensations we are feeling from a place of darkness, and into the Realm of Pure Radiant Light by the power of our own Spoken Word. Therefore to reap the full benefit of the Wisdom of the Phoenicians we must first experience the Miraculous Essence concealed within the Symbols and Letters of the Sacred Alphabet until the message of the Phoenicians is revealed in our Heart, Soul and Body. We will then appreciate the Magical Universe perceived by these ancient people, and bear witness to miracles in our world as we surrender to the Radiant Light of the androgynous God-dess to reveal through us the Eternal Presence of True Love and Pure Light in Heaven, now reflected on Earth.

The Phoenician 'Process of Self-Creation' takes place 'Within the Beginning', which is not a moment in time, but the Silent Sanctuary within the womb of the androgynous God-dess, where 'Consciousness' is Immaculately Conceived through the self-impregnation of our most earnest desire by the Almighty Self-Knowing Word of Completion, which declares 'LIGHT EXISTS'! Consciousness is the Spark of Light within each individual, made in the Image of the self-reproducing God-dess which is both male and female united as one. However our consciousness is yet in an embryonic state, and although we are conceived 'Whole' 'to bear witness to the Pure Light in Heaven, we now believe we are divided and only conscious of existing in our physical world of separation and limitation. Nevertheless we are always in a State of Perfection, as it is 'Within the Beginning', and One with our Soul Mate which forever remains in a State of Grace in the Pure Radiant Light in Paradise.

During our delusional sojourn in the physical world we are beset with many dreams and dramas, which appear as physical manifestations to our newly formed consciousness. But since Pure Radiant Light is all that is ever conceived 'Within the Beginning', what we now see in our world is only the image of our own self-deceptions. Hence our consciousness must now undergo gestation until we are aware of our original Immaculate Conception of 'Pure Wholeness' and 'Immortality'. Then once our developing consciousness awakens to this 'Truth', we will bear witness to the Amazing Reality of our Magical Universe.

Following the directions revealed by the Sacred Symbols and Letters our immature consciousness goes through seven stages of gestation during the 'Process of Self-Creation' from 'Embryo to Enlightenment'. However presently most humans are only 'Conscious of Existing', 'Conscious of Pleasure or Pain' and 'Conscious of Interaction' with the physical world of appearances. But as our desire to know more about our 'Self' intensifies, we will become 'Conscious of the Vital Energy' flowing through our body, before becoming 'Conscious of Prophecy' and 'Conscious of Pure Magic', until finally we are 'Conscious of our Wholeness in Heaven'. Alas there are no diplomas or initiations that can instantly pronounce us to be of these advanced states of awareness; for merit only comes when we are conscious of our 'Enlightenment' as now being a 'Reality' within our self.

We are forever living in a State of Perfection in the Pure Magical Light of the androgynous God-dess in Heaven. Furthermore once we are conscious that this Divine State of Being is our 'Truth', we will leave behind the apparent trials and tribulations of the outer world, as we focus instead on staying connected with our Soul Mate in the Pure Magical Light in Paradise within us. For our Soul Mate is our guide and liberator which pronounces the Word that confirms we already 'Exist' in a State of Perfection. In due course we realise that we do not 'create' our world of physical appearances, but 'choose it', which constantly appears and then disappears according to the intense sensations we feel in our body and our consciousness has accepted as being as our true Identity. And once we discover that the Universe is Magical, we will appreciate that we can change what we feel by now dwelling in the Miraculous Moment when our Heart's Desire is already fulfilled. We will then witness on Earth the reflection of our Immaculate Conception, as it is 'Within the Beginning', and our present world, conceived by our delusional thoughts and misconceptions, will mysteriously disappear.

Now we must learn to control our thoughts through our feelings by following in the giant footsteps of the Phoenician Masters of Mystery and Magic, as we take an Inner Journey into our heart and experience the incredible sensations induced when we observe the Symbols and pronounce the Letters of the Sacred Alphabet. Hence when committed to this revealing Journey of Self-Discovery we enhance our understanding of the 'Mystical Process of Self-Creation', and will then appreciate the miraculous and paradoxical Universe of the ancient Phoenicians that is both pragmatic and yet magical, in which we 'exist'.

The Phoenicians never recorded the meaning of the Sacred Symbols and Letters in writing, which was only conveyed by the 'Spoken Word' from Mouth to Ear and understood by the sensation now experienced in our Body and Soul. For the Wisdom concealed within the Sacred Alphabet is only revealed as the wonderful feeling of Joy and Contentment within our own Heart. And incredibly, once we learn to do something by heart we are no longer aware that we are doing it. Since there is an instant connection between our Soul Mate and our body when we are convinced that our Ideal State is already our 'Reality' and is confirmed by our Almighty Word to be 'True'. Thus we must first experience the Essence of the Symbols and Letters of the Sacred Phoenician Alphabet until the sensation they induce when spoken aloud is fully integrated within us.

The original Sacred Alphabet is explained in modern terms throughout the manual to describe the twenty two Symbols, which conceal the potential to reveal any possibility in our world through our own self-impregnation. Subsequently, as our Inner Journey through the 'Process of Self-Creation' progresses we learn of the Indescribable and Unspoken Symbol of SIMS, and will have 'Previous Knowledge' of the empowering sensation of now being 'Pure Light'; for our 'Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction'.

'THE ORIGIN OF THE SACRED ALPHABET'

ALMIGHTY (AL) WORD (PHA) WITHIN(BET)

Any attempt to explain ethereal concepts in intellectual terms often produces more confusion than clarity, since it is not possible to describe the smell of a rose to someone who has not yet experienced the exquisite fragrance of the blossom for themselves. Of course this is also true of the Sacred Phoenician Alphabet which is the foundation of the English Alphabet, but only has twenty two Letters rather than twenty six, which are arranged in a different order.

The illusive nature of the Sacred Alphabet and the significance of the Symbols and Letters has always remained a mystery, not because the wisdom the symbols represent has been intentionally withheld from the masses, but that the conscious state of the majority of Humanity was not sufficiently developed to understand the profound and prudent principles they teach, and so the function and purpose of the original Sacred Alphabet has almost been forgotten. Nevertheless, the 'Truth' has always been hidden from us in plain sight in the form of the letters with which we continue to 'conjure up' our physical world, even though we may be completely oblivious to the magical transformations now taking place before our eyes. Although eventually we will awaken to find our world is not as it appears to our physical senses, since it is only the reflection of our own self-conception.

To explain this further we must consider the lifestyle and ideology of these ancient Canaanites who are reputed to have devised the Sacred Alphabet; now known as Proto-Sinaitic Script. The original Sacred Alphabet is a collection of Symbols, or Letters of which only twenty two are still recognised today, and were phonetically pronounced out loud to induce the sensation of fulfilled desire in their Heart, Soul and Body. This particular group of Semitic People whose ancestors, so they assumed had always lived and fished along the Lebanese Coast, later became known as the Phoenicians, and it is they who are now acknowledged as the originators of the first phonetic alphabet. Yet the 'True' origin of the Sacred Alphabet remains a mystery, although the ancient Phoenicians maintained it was 'Created' before time began in the womb of the androgynous God-dess, who is both Mother and Father of All in Creation. And according to ancient tradition, the wisdom concealed within the Sacred Symbols and Letters was only handed down from 'Mouth to Ear', by the 'Spoken Word' of the ancestors.

Once the Port Town of Gebal, now known as Byblos, was established the Canaanites grew from strength to strength by manufacturing sea-worthy vessels to trade their precious cargo of the finest cedar wood, hewn from the trees that grew in abundance in the fertile Mountains of Lebanon, to countries throughout the Mediterranean and far beyond. These Ancient Mariners viewed the Universe very differently than we do today; perceiving themselves to be at the Silent Centre of a Timeless, Magic Circle of Colour within the womb of the God-dess, where everything is Connected as One and is constantly changing. Thus knowing the Universe is pure magical sensation, they altered their 'Reality' by pronouncing the Letters of the Sacred Alphabet with resonance to change their own vibration. Then by devising stories, and declaring themselves to already be the incarnation of their fulfilled desire, they then witnessed their Ideal State now magically appear as a physical manifestation in the world.

To the Canaanites all in existence was understood to be the reflection of the Mystical Union of Heaven and Earth that was now taking place in the Magical Light within them. But in our 'Advanced' world of science and technology the Universe is often regarded as divided and unconnected to ourselves, and our environment as an aspect of life over which we have little control, and so our innate magical abilities have deteriorated. They also had different religious ideologies; believing that the Pure Magical Light of True Love is all that 'exists' in the Universe. And since Light cannot be seen directly it was never represented by any effigy, but is reflected in the manifestations that inexplicably appear and disappear in our world. This mystical presence of Pure Light is known as the self-reproducing God-dess, 'Baalat Gebal', 'Queen of the Border', which brings to Life, and dissolves, ALL in 'Creation' through Self-Impregnation. However the ineffable, androgynous God-dess is referred to as 'The God-dess', since it was considered that only through the Maternal Blood Line* do we Inherit the power to feel the Desire of the God-dess in our Heart, Soul and Body, which gives life to the physical realities which are consciously seen as 'Real' in our world.

See page 20 (Biological Maternal Inheritance)*

When a desire was felt within them it was assumed by the Canaanites to be the Divine Will of the God-dess, who now desired to be self-impregnated by the Word of Perfection. Hence they responded by breathing in Light and speaking the appropriate Letter of the Sacred Alphabet to induce the sensation of fulfilled desire in their body. And when a Sacred Letter was spoken with intention it was regarded as a prophecy which always came 'True'; for it was known that what is conceived in Heaven will be revealed on Earth once it is consciously accepted as being 'True' in our heart. A story was then told to support the miraculous outcome of their prophecy. And while wearing a metaphorical 'Robe of Many Colours', they pronounced the Letter which induced the Robe to change colour to that which resonated with the Essence of their chosen vibration. Thus upon hearing 'The Word'* of their Soul Mate confirm, 'It Is Done', they gave thanks in celebration; for they were now magically self-impregnated by their own Inner Word of Perfection.

 'The Word' means 'Self-Conception'*

The Canaanites continued to live a life of sexual equality and 'good fortune' until eventually the wisdom of the ancestors was almost forgotten. Then following a hefty defeat at the hands of the Amorites, an adept of 'Pure Magic' known as Tauutos, which means "to have Pervious Knowledge", reminded the Community of the purpose of the Sacred Alphabet. So while pronouncing the Word to induce self-impregnation, they once again witnessed the miracles of the God-dess appear in their world. At the height of their accomplishment they experienced few setbacks in life and if misfortune did appear to befall them they were able to re-invent themselves almost immediately. While the Canaanites referred to their own Community as 'The People' they later became known as 'The Phenikes' or 'The Phoenicians', because as the Greeks had observed, in the face of any adversity they always Ascended Triumphant from the Jaws of Defeat, resembling a Resurrected Phoenix arising up from the Fire, now totally transformed.

Although the Phoenicians continued to only speak the Sacred Letters to induce sensations, they were later inscribed in stone, possibly by travellers coming out of Lebanon, since carvings of the Symbols have been found at *Serabit el Khadin and at *Wadi el Hol

See omniglot.com/Proto Sinaitic/Proto Canaanite Script*

Hence the original Symbols were eventually adapted to form the Hebrew Alphabet, and then the 'The Pentateuch', the first Five Books of the Hebrew Bible were written in Aramaic, which was a further adaptation of the original Symbols. However, since the Stories of the Bible were not recorded until long after the Sacred Alphabet was 'Created', the purpose of the Sacred Symbols, which is to reveal the Pure Light of the God-dess in our world, may no longer have been appreciated. This is evident in 'Strong's Concordance of the Bible' (2001), which is a transliteration of Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek Biblical words into English, but the meaning of the original Phoenician Letters may have changed with the advent of the 'Written Word' and transition from 'Goddess' to 'God' worship by the Hebrews. For instance, one of the original meanings of 'AL' or 'A' in Strong's Concordance (2001) is 'She' or 'Her', although 'AL' is no longer translated as such, and is now only referred to as 'He'. Consequently the androgynous God-dess of 'Pure Light' and the 'Spoken Word' were removed from Heaven, and replaced by the 'Written Word' of a totally masculine God, thus worshipping the God-dess was now considered sacrilege. However to the Ancient Phoenicians the Sacred Alphabet was not a system of Commandments, as it was for the Hebrews, but a Process of Self-Conversion. So while others now revered the 'Written Word as Law', the Phoenicians remained faithful to the 'Truth' of the God-dess' and the 'Spoken Word'; knowing the potential to convert Pure Light into physical manifestations is only inherited through the maternal blood line. It is assumed the Phoenicians were referring to 'Mitochondrial DNA', or Biological Maternal Inheritance, which is only ever inherited from the Mother by both male and female offspring. Now it is accepted that our Maternal DNA converts the Light from the Sun, the air we breathe, and the food that we eat, into vibrant energy in the cells of our body, which produces the sensations that appear as physical materialisations in our world. So while breathing in Pure Magical Light the Phoenicians pronounced the Letters to induce their desired vibration. And upon hearing the Word of Confirmation from their Soul Mate within them they had absolute faith that the God-dess of Pure Magic would now suddenly appear as a miracle in their world.

According to the Phoenicians all manifestations come from the seed of desire which grows into a 'Tree of Life'. And although the root, trunk, branches and leaves of the Tree appear separate, they
